

SPLASH OFF

Creek Week 2011

Creek Week 2011 artwork and theme.

Opening day event, Splash off, was held at Rusch Park in Citrus Heights.

Keynote speaker, Dr. Jayna Karpinski-Costa.

Creek Steward Award was presented to the students of Mesa Verde High School.

Sponsors...

ACTIVITIES

Creek Week 2011

“Finding Fish in Arcade Creek” included biologists from Entrix that answered questions.

▲ “Bufferlands Birds & Blooms Tour” explored wetlands with native wildflowers and year-round nesting sites of waterfowl.

◀ “Steelhead Creek Beaver Pond Walk” activity at the Wolfe Ranch Wildlife Sanctuary, was scheduled for early evening.

CLEAN-UP

Creek Week 2011

2,000+ volunteers worked along a total of 32 miles of waterways.

21 tons of garbage were removed.

CLEAN-UP

Creek Week 2011

Volunteers conducted water quality testing and stream observations, recording their data for several creek locations.

Approximately 75 cubic yards of invasive plants were removed by Creek Week Weed Warriors.

CELEBRATION

Creek Week 2011

Volunteers celebrated at Carmichael Park.

CELEBRATION

Creek Week 2011

